B. Jurisdiction and Venue

The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over plaintiff's claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1332, 1343, 1367 and the aforementioned statutory and constitutional provisions.

Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391. All conditions precedent to filing suit have been fulfilled. To wit, plaintiff filed a timely Charge of Discrimination with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission on April 2, 2007 bearing charge number 520-2007-01860. After initial investigation, the United States Department of Justice issued to plaintiff a Notice of Right to Sue which plaintiff received on March 17, 2008. This action was filed within 90 days of plaintiff's receipt of the Notice of Right to Sue.

C. Nature of the Case

This action is brought under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. (Title VII); New York State Executive Law § 290 et seq.; and, the New York City Administrative Code § 8-101 et seq. to redress violations of plaintiff's rights as guaranteed by the laws of the United States and the State of New York prohibiting unlawful discrimination, harassment, and retaliation.

No counterclaims have been asserted.

D. Legal and Factual Issues

Whether the defendants have unlawfully discriminated against plaintiff in her compensation, terms, conditions, and/or privileges of employment because of her gender or her good faith opposition to discriminatory practices by subjecting her to adverse employment actions, a hostile working environment, and an ongoing atmosphere of adverse acts which went unabated in violation of Title VII, the NY Human Rights Law, and the City Human Rights Law.

E. Relief Sought

Plaintiff demands compensatory damages in the sum of $2,000,000.00 (Two Million Dollars); punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury; a permanent injunction enjoining defendants from any further actions abridging plaintiff's rights, including but not limited to, an injunction preventing defendants or any of their agents or employees from providing negative, misleading, or disparaging references pertaining to plaintiff's employment; reasonable attorneys fees and the costs and disbursements of this action; and, such other and further relief that to the Court seems just and proper.
